

I would LOVE to see the use of cell phone used on flights. There are many times I would like to reach my family when traveling and it would be a nice "perk" so many people travel on business that this would greatly improve their communication ability!